The regional delegations of the ANPEI – Your choice of region to be attached to :

In order to cover the whole country, the ANPEI is divided into 8 regions. Each region has a regional delegate, administrator, in charge of organising local meetings, keeping informed of the state of the waterway network of his/her region and participating in meetings with the local waterway authorities.

You need to choose the region to which you are attached either in relation to your place of residence or of the home port of your boat.

You will have the possibility to change the region to which you are attached without any formalities, but this choice does imply your participation (in meetings, events, exchanges etc.) in the region which you have chosen.
